Advertising Rates

Windycon is an annual science fiction convention held at the Westin Lombard, in Lombard, Illinois. We are soliciting ads for our program book which is distributed to each registered attendee upon arrival. The convention averages around 1,200 attendees each year. The final page of this document is a copy of our flyer, which will provide more information on our dates, location, and guests.

Pages 2-4 are visual layouts to help guide in your selection of ad size. The first half of our program book is in a 2-column format and contains guest biographies as well as information about the various convention departments. The second half of the program book is in a 3-column format. It lists programming times and descriptions, and this is also where we publish the annual short story winner.

Fan Rates apply to clubs and fan groups, as well as other conventions. Pro Rates apply to businesses. If you are not sure, email us with a description of your organization and we will help you select the correct rate.

For the ad copy, we require camera ready art. For electronic files, PDFs are preferred but we can also take JPEG (high-res), GIF, TIF, EPS, and MS Word .doc files. Electronic files can be emailed to marketing@windycon.org. Hard copy, CDs, or usb drives, can be mailed to:

Seward Street Studios
